

RASAYAN JOURNAL

Announcements

Dear Colleagues,

Green Chemistry is the need of today's life. It is our prime duty to save our planet from the evil Pollution. Chemists all over the world are fighting for this noble cause. We also want to contribute our share and invite your contribution on Green Chemistry .

We invite all researchers of Green Chemistry to contribute their research finding to RASĀYAN and exchange their views mutually on a common platform here.

We always publish such papers on priority.

Note :-

1. Manuscripts can be submitted electronically or in print form .
2. Electronic submission is preferred and should be made to drsanjay1973@gmail.com¹ or rasayanjournal@gmail.com² .

Each paper will go through a review process by an international panel of experts. Contributors should bear in mind that they are addressing an international audience. Submitted articles must not have been previously published or currently submitted for journal publication elsewhere. Longer, extended and revised versions of papers that have appeared in preliminary form in proceedings of conferences or workshops are welcome; however, the authors should include a brief statement in their submission to indicate the way in which the article differs from such previously published papers. Please feel free to contact the Editor-in-Chief if you have any questions/concerns.

For Preparation of Manuscript please follow the Authors Guidelines, refer the following link for the same-
